What is FacForum? What is its purpose and appropriate use?

FacForum is an email-based forum. The purpose of FacForum is the dissemination of information of interest to Florida Tech faculty and staff. This includes announcements of events on campus, human resources notices, dates and deadlines, and discussions of academic issues. Florida Tech faculty and staff may subscribe to facforum using their fit.edu e-mail address. This list is not open to students or others. Personal items such as garage sales, pets for adoption, etc., are discouraged. Please use an appropriate subject line to identify your post.
