

Getting Software

How do I purchase Adobe software from CDW-G?

Note: This document is for purchasing software for use on university-owned computers.

Florida Tech has entered into a contractual agreement with Adobe Systems Inc. and the Florida Community College Distance Learning Consortium (FCCDLC). Adobe's Adobe Contractual License Program (CLP) is a flexible licensing program that enables FCCDLC members to purchase Adobe software products and receive the discounts and benefits of a large-volume purchase. This agreement is facilitated through CDW-G.

Sample Products

- Acrobat Product Family
